

Communication for March 12, 2021 distribution

Students that received funds on their account received the message below.

Congratulations! You have been awarded $xxx from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERFII) for students through Hanover College. This funding is provided to colleges to distribute to enrolled students that demonstrate financial need through filing the FAFSA. It can be used to assist with your expenses related to college attendance during the coronavirus pandemic. This amount has been applied directly to your student account and can be used to settle current or future charges. If you would like to apply this credit toward your returning student deposit or a summer course fee please email studentaccounts@hanover.edu.

Students receiving checks received the message below.

Congratulations! You have been awarded $xxx from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERFII) for students through Hanover College. This funding is provided to colleges to distribute to enrolled students that demonstrate financial need through filing the FAFSA. Based on your need, you will receive a check for $xxx. You may pick up your check (student ID required) at the Business Office beginning tomorrow, March 12th. The Business Office will be open Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm. These funds can be used to assist with your expenses related to college attendance during the coronavirus pandemic.